Matthew 14:22-33

Meditation: Does the Lord Jesus seem distant when trials or adversity come your way? It was at Jesus' initiative that the disciples sailed across the lake, only to find themselves in a life-threatening storm. Although they were experienced fishermen, they feared for their lives. While Jesus was not with them in the boat, he, nonetheless watched for them in prayer. When he perceived their trouble he came to them on the sea and startled them with his sudden appearance. Do you look for the Lord's presence when you encounter difficulty or challenges?

Fight fear with faith

This dramatic incident on the sea of Galilee revealed Peter's character more fully than others. Here we see Peter's impulsiveness - his tendency to act without thinking of what he was doing. He often failed and came to grief as a result of his impulsiveness. In contrast, Jesus always bade his disciples to see how difficult it was to follow him before they set out on the way he taught them. A great deal of failure in the Christian life is due to acting on impulse and emotional fervor without counting the cost. Peter, fortunately in the moment of his failure clutched at Jesus and held him firmly. Every time Peter fell, he rose again. His failures only made him love the Lord more deeply and trust him more intently.

The Lord keeps watch over us at all times, and especially in our moments of temptation and difficulty. Do you rely on the Lord for his strength and help? Jesus assures us that we have no need of fear if we trust in Him and in his great love for us. When calamities or trials threaten to overwhelm you, how do you respond? With faith and hope in God's love, care and presence with you?

"Lord Jesus, help me to trust you always and to never doubt your presence and your power to help me. In my moments of doubt and weakness, may I cling to you as Peter did. Strengthen my faith that I may walk straight in the path you set before me, neither veering to the left nor to the right."

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Do you know that Jesus is waiting for you to come visit with Him as He sits on his front porch (in the Monstrance on the altar)? Yes, He is on His porch every Tuesday 4:00 to 8:00 p.m. Come and talk with him about anything that's on your mind. I guarantee you will be loved and appreciated now and throughout eternity.

PRAYER OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Reverence and quiet are expected in the church Especially during Adoration!

Prayers for the Sick;

God our Father, your Son accepted our sufferings to teach us the virtue of patience in human illness. Hear the prayers we offer for our sick brother/sister. May all who suffer pain, illness, or disease realize that they have been chosen to be saints and know that they are joined to Christ in His suffering for the salvation of the world. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer for Healing;

Our Lady appeared in Lourdes, France, in 1858 to a humble peasant girl, St. Bernadette. Mary asked for prayer and sacrifice for the conversion of sinners. To this day the Lord works many miracles through the water of a spring at the site of the apparitions. By means of this prayer, ask Our Lady for her prayers for healing and/or other blessings you desire! knightsoftheholyeucharist.com

The Deacon's Corner...

The Story of the Fern and the Bamboo (By Fr. Tommy Lane)

One day I decided to quit...I quit my job, my relationship, my spirituality...

I wanted to quit my life. I went to the woods to have one last talk with God. "God", I said. "Can you give me one good reason not to quit?" His answer surprised me. "Look around," He said. "Do you see the fern and the bamboo?" "Yes," I replied.

When I planted the fern and the bamboo seeds, I took very good care of them. I gave them light. I gave them water. The fern quickly grew from the earth. Its brilliant green covered the floor. Yet nothing came from the bamboo seed. But I did not quit on the bamboo. In the second year the fern grew more vibrant and plentiful. And again, nothing came from the bamboo seed. But I did not quit on the bamboo. In year three there was still nothing from the bamboo seed. But I would not quit. The same in year four. Then in the fifth year, a tiny sprout emerged from the earth. Compared to the fern, it was seemingly small and insignificant. But just six months later, the bamboo rose to over 100 feet tall.

The bamboo had spent the five years growing roots. Those roots made it strong and gave it what it needed to survive. God said, "I would not give any of my creations a challenge it could not handle. Did you know, my child, that all this time you have been struggling, you have actually been growing roots? I would not quit on the bamboo. I will never quit on you. Don't compare yourself to others."

"The bamboo had a different purpose than the fern. Yet they both make the forest beautiful. Your time will come", God said to me. "You will rise high." "How high should I rise?" I asked. "How high will the bamboo rise?" He asked in return. "As high as it can?" I questioned. "Yes." He said, "Give me glory by rising as high as you can."

I left the forest, realizing that God will never give up on me. And He will never give up on you. Never regret a day in your life. Good days give you happiness; bad days give you experiences; both are essential to life.

Serenity isn't freedom from the storm, but peace within the storm.

God Bless You! Deacon Rick

PRAYER FOR THE DEAD

In your hands, O Lord, we humbly entrust our brothers and sisters. In this life you embraced them with your tender love; deliver them now from every evil and bid them eternal rest. The old order has passed away: welcome them into paradise, where there will be no sorrow, no weeping or pain, but fullness of peace and joy with your Son and the Holy Spirit forever and ever.
Amen.

PRAYER FOR THE HOLY FATHER

Almighty and everlasting God, have mercy upon Thy servant, Pope Francis, our Supreme Pontiff, and direct him, according to Thy loving kindness, in the way of eternal salvation; that, of Thy gift, he may ever desire that which is pleasing unto Thee and may accomplish it with all his might. Through Christ Our Lord.
Amen.

Our Father. Hail Mary.

PARISH MISSION
“SEVEN CAPITAL VIRTUES: OVERCOMING THE SEVEN CAPITAL SINS”

Sunday – Wednesday, September 3 – 6, 2023 6:00-8:30 pm
Resurrection Catholic Chapel

During a mission, the people of the parish gather each evening for a series of presentations on the how our Christian lives can be transformed by the Virtues:

- Humility & Meekness: Overcoming Pride & Anger
- Generosity & Temperance: Overcoming Avarice & Gluttony
- Chastity: Overcoming Lust
- Brotherly Love & Diligence: Overcoming Envy & Sloth

Dear Deacon Rick:

As you requested, I am writing to confirm the schedule for the mission that I will be giving at your parish. The following is my normal mission schedule for the series that you have selected, which is titled: "Seven Capital Virtues: Overcoming the Seven Capital Sins":

- Weekend Masses: I will celebrate and preach the Sunday evening Mass.
- Sunday Evening: Adoration & Confessions at 4:00 PM; Mass at 5:00 PM; Mission Conference at 6:00 PM; Confessions follow the Mission Service.
- Monday – Wednesday Evenings: Confessions at 6:00 PM; Mass at 6:30 PM; Mission Conference following the Mass (we can do it in the context of a Holy Hour, if you want]. Many parishes like to have a Parish Social following the Closing Mass of the Mission (Wednesday night).

Generally speaking, each evening's service will last around one hour.

The subjects for the mission conferences are: Humility & Meekness (Sunday), Generosity & Temperance (Monday), Chastity (Tuesday), and Brotherly Love & Diligence (Wednesday)

During the day, I would be happy to visit the sick and shut-ins of the parish. I will need a couple hours each day (preferably in the afternoons) for my own personal prayer and rest time.

Yours in the Merciful Lord Jesus,

Fr. Ben J. Cameron, C.P.M.

Prayer for the Success of a Mission

O Jesus, Most Holy Redeemer, our Master, and our King, it is to Your Sacred Heart, that ocean of love, mercy and goodness, that we owe the inestimable blessing of a Mission. Touched with compassion at the sight of our miseries and the eternal unhappiness that threatens us, You have resolved to save us.

Grant the light of faith to poor souls plunged in the darkness of ignorance and error. To those who have saddened You by a wicked life, give the grace of a sincere conversion. Bestow fresh fervor upon the lukewarm, and upon the just true progress in the way of virtue. Send forth Your Holy Spirit upon all of us, and the face of this Parish shall be renewed.

The missionary who is coming to us is Your representative; in Your person he will break for us the bread of God's Word and will bring us the joy of forgiveness. Grant, O Lord, that we may be faithful to your grace and correspond zealously with the advances of your mercy. Let the preaching of Your eternal truths enlighten and enliven our minds, and deeply move our hearts, so that we may realize our shortcomings and sincerely repent of them.

And you, O Mary, Immaculate Virgin and Mother of Perpetual Help, you are the refuge and advocate of poor sinners; the more guilty they are, the more claim they have upon your tenderness. It is for this reason that we make bold to implore your powerful and motherly protection with all confidence. Our salvation is in your hands, plead our cause and intercede for us with your divine Son.

Amen.
